What I Need to Know

Good day and welcome to another lesson in English 4. This new lesson will develop your creative thinking skills on distinguishing a fact from opinion from a text. This module is full of creative learning activities that you will enjoy. You will learn about:

Distinguishing fact from opinion from a narrative. (EN4RC-III 36)

Lesson
4

Distinguishing fact from opinion from a narrative

What I Know

Directions: Read the following sentences. Draw a happy face  before the number if it is a fact and draw a sad face  if it is an opinion.

- _____ 1. All boys enjoy kite flying
- _____ 2. Reading is a worthwhile activity
- _____ 3. Baking is only for girls.
- _____ 4. Engaging in sports helps keep our body healthy.
- _____ 5. I think playing online games are better than traditional games.

What's In

Directions: Read the sentences. Identify whether they are fact or opinion.

1. Bicycles are light, safe and fast._____
2. One can exercise using them._____
3. I think young and old enjoy riding bicycle._____
4. They believe that they are safe and comfortable to ride._____
5. They are wonderful for transportation and for exercise._____

What's New

Directions: Read and understand this poem. Be ready to distinguish the succeeding activity between facts from an opinion.

The Little Kite

“I can never do it” the little kite said.
As he look at the others high over his head;
But the little kite said, ”I am afraid I’ll fall,”
Up, up the kite rose to the air
As he sailed with the big kite side;
While far below he could see the ground
“oh how happy I am! The little kite cried,

On all because I was brave and tried.”

Directions: Read and understand the sentences carefully. Draw a box  if it is a FACT and draw a Circle  if it is an OPINION.

- _____ 1. Up, up the kite rose through the air.
- _____ 2. “I can never do it”, the little kite said.
- _____ 3. The little kite sailed with the big kite side by side.
- _____ 4. But the little kite said”, I am afraid I’ll fall”.
- _____ 5. Oh, how happy I am! The little kite cried on all because I was brave and tried.

What is It

A FACT is something that is true and supported by evidence.

An OPINION is only a belief. It is also an expression of a person’s feelings. Clue word like think, believe, feel, probably or seem signals an opinion.

What’s More

ACTIVITY 1

I like to take a walk every day because it makes one feel more energetic. A vigorous walk makes my heart beat faster. A doctor told one that during exercise, the heart pumps more oxygen to the body.

Aside from this, I enjoy because it makes me appreciate nature more. The sights and sounds along the way make me really happy.

Directions: Write F if the sentence is FACT and O if the sentence is OPINION

- ___1. I like to walk everyday.
- ___2. I feel more energetic after the walk.
- ___3. The heart pumps blood throughout the body.
- ___4. I enjoy walking because it helps me appreciate nature more.
- ___5. A vigorous walk makes the heart beat faster.

ACTIVITY 2

Carla is a six years old, and she lives on a farm. They have cow, cornfield and a small vegetable garden. Carla likes to help her mother work at the garden. They have a small white house and a big red barn. They have two horses, three carabaos, one dog and a cow.

Carla thinks that the horse is nice. She thinks that the carabaos are funny when they roll around the mud. The dog is her favorite. But she is not sure what she thinks about the cow. The cow is the biggest of all their animals, and it makes the loudest sound. Carla always run to her papa when the cow lift its head to MOOO!

Direction: Encircle the word FACT if it really happened in the story and the word OPINION if it is someone thinks or believes.
