DEPED SECRETARY'S GRADUATION MESSAGE

Assalamualaikum.

My warmest greetings to the Class of 2023 for the successful culmination of your academic endeavors.

This milestone attests to the hard work and perseverance you have exemplified as you embark on another journey leading you to the realization of your aspirations of a better life and a better future.

I join your families and academic communities in celebrating this achievement.

We recognize their valuable role in your growth and development as well-rounded individuals--preparing you to face the demands of a higher learning or navigate the complexity of life as successful professionals.

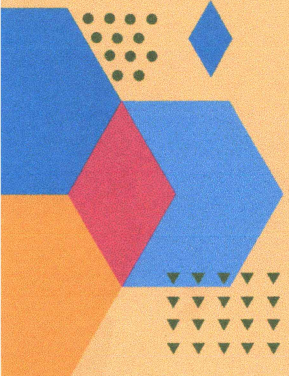

I am with you in forging a path toward progress even as you continue to live by the tenets that have guided you in your academic training and inspired you to pursue excellence as young leaders.

May the knowledge and skills you have gained serve as your springboard for greater success and inspire you to become catalysts of transformative social growth within your respective communities.

I hope you will realize the depth of your potential and the power that you now possess as young educated Filipinos--and use this not only to achieve your dreams and change your lives for the better, but also hope our fellow Filipinos and our country.

As future leaders and builders of our nation, may you become persistent, determined, and committed to the fight for peace, security and stability, the ending of poverty, the campaign to give Filipino children access to basic education, the protection of the environment, the promotion of health and nutrition, and many other challenges that we are facing today.

Consistent with our vision in the MATATAG agenda, we will continue to promote programs and uphold reforms that will nurture resilient mindsets so that we can hone young Filipinos who have the capacity and resiliency to thrive in challenging circumstances.

The grit and resilience of Filipino learners amid the difficulties of everyday life will continue to inspire us and empower us in building an education system that responds to the changes of our time.

Through an inclusive education that is forged by a positive learning environment, I am optimistic that we can continue to produce competent young citizens like you who will help steer our nation's path to sustainable development.

Let this milestone remind us of the indispensable role of education in charting course of our youth's future and in harnessing their potential to become outstanding individuals.

This year's graduates have done a great job of channeling their passions into endeavors that will enrich their pursuits and advance their respective vocations and professions.

As you move into the next chapter of education and leave the halls of your alma mater, it is my hope that you will unceasingly work hard to become active stakeholders in our nation-building efforts.

Together with our academic partners in all education levels, let us remain committed to promoting our youth's strong sense of nationalism so they can be part of a productive and responsible citizenry that will help chart the path of our nation's growth

Again, congratulations to the Class of 2023!

May you continue to pursue your ambitions with zeal, persistence, and excellence and use it to create a better future for all.

Sama-sama tayong magsumikap abutin ang ating layunin: Bansang makabata, batang makabansa.

Lahat para sa Diyos, bayan, at pamilyang Pilipino.

Shukran.

REGIONAL DIRECTOR'S GRADUATION MESSAGE

Today, we celebrate a significant milestone in your educational journey. As you stand before us, adorned in your graduation regalia, you represent the embodiment of resilience, strength, and determination. You are the graduates who have been molded through a resilient educational foundation, and your achievements deserve to be acknowledged and celebrated.

Throughout your years in the K to 12 program, you have faced numerous challenges and obstacles. You have weathered storms of change, adapting to new teaching methods, curriculum reforms, and technological advancements. Despite these hurdles, you have shown remarkable resilience, embracing each challenge as an opportunity for growth and learning. Your ability to rise above adversity and thrive in the face of uncertainty is a testament to your unwavering commitment to education.

Embrace the unknown with open arms and an unwavering belief in your abilities. Embrace the power of lifelong learning, for education does not end with a graduation ceremony but rather is a lifelong pursuit. Seek knowledge, question the status quo, and never settle for mediocrity. Your generation has the potential to shape the future and create positive change in our society.

As you embark on this new chapter, remember the people who have supported you along the way: your parents, teachers, mentors, and friends. They have believed in you, guided you, and cheered you on, even in moments of doubt. Take a moment to express your gratitude to them for their unwavering support and encouragement.

Finally, let us not forget the power of community. The friendships and connections you have forged during your time in the K to 12 program are invaluable. Lean on each other, uplift one another, and continue to inspire each other to reach greater heights. Your shared experiences have woven a tapestry of resilience, and together, you can accomplish remarkable feats.

To the resilient graduates of the K to 12 program, congratulations on this extraordinary achievement. May you continue to embrace challenges, seek knowledge, and shape a brighter future. Remember, you are the architects of your destiny, and I have no doubt that you will leave an indelible mark on the world.

Thank you and congratulations, Class of 2023!

DIVISION SUPERINTENDENT'S GRADUATION MESSAGE

Graduates and completers in all public and private schools of Dipolog City for the school year 2022-2023, I extend my sincerest congratulations on your remarkable success in reaching this momentous milestone in your academic journey.

Your learning experience through the K to 12 program has equipped you with the necessary tools to face the challenges of an ever-changing world. Throughout the years, you have demonstrated immense resilience, adaptability, and a hunger for enlightenment. These qualities undoubtedly have been woven into your character which made you stronger and more passionate in fulfilling your dreams.

It is important to recognize that the challenges you hurdled in your schooling has potentially made you smarter and more capable in facing the complexities of the outside world. You have proven it with your perseverance even when your hope has been dimmed and clouded by uncertainties brought about by the pandemic and a fluctuating economy. With your unyielding spirit, we are confident that you can easily navigate through the expansive realm fraught with unpredictability and pressures. It is reassuring to note that with your accumulated knowledge, enduring attitude and dynamic skills, doors of opportunities and a promising future are opened up for you and your families. It is without doubt that your ability to build connections and create ties with people from all walks of life can further lead you to expand your horizon and establish a stronger support group that will ensure the achievement of your goals in life.

It makes us, together with your parents, teachers and other stakeholders, beam with pride and happiness that we have become your significant allies and collaborators in paving the path to more successes in your lives. Indeed, their unwavering support, steadfast guidance and admirable dedication have been instrumental in your various achievements. Rest assured that we will continually provide you with the much-needed resources that will aid you in your various endeavors.

As you embark on the next level of education, bear in mind that your value system is an important barometer to success. Use it to gauge your dealings and encounters and as compass in exploring your chances for progress and choosing the right battles to fight and win. Never be afraid to step out of your comfort zones so you may have more opportunities of honing your abilities and deepening your learning. Consciously and conscientiously, let your actions create a ripple effect of positive transformation within your communities.

Congratulations and Mabuhay, Class of 2022-2023!
